Rabbi Louis Jacobs Delivers Stowe Lecture May 20

Rabbi Louis Jacobs, considered by many to be in the forefront of contemporary Jewish scholarship and founder of the Conservative Movement in Great Britain, will deliver the Jonathan Stowe Memorial Lecture at Park Avenue Synagogue on Saturday afternoon, May 20. Rabbi Jacobs will speak on 'Jewish Saints and Saintliness', an exploration of the Hassidic world and its influence.

Rabbi Jacobs is a world renowned theologian, lecturer and author. The Rabbi of the New London Synagogue in London, England for the past 25 years, he is the author of 30 books on Jewish theology, Jewish mysticism, Talmud and Jewish law. His autobiography, Helping With Inquiries, will be published this spring.

Following services on Shabbat morning, the congregation is invited to lunch (by advance reservation only; $20 per person) and then to hear this lecture by Rabbi Jacobs.

The congregation appreciates the legacy from the late Jonathan Stowe and the generosity of his mother, Lennie Stowe, and his brother, Dr. Stephen Stowe, which makes the lecture possible.

Join In Building Float For Salute To Israel Parade

Buffet Supper To Precede Annual Meeting

Park Avenue Synagogue will hold its annual meeting of the congregation on Thursday, May 18 at 7 p.m. Preceding the meeting a complimentary buffet supper will be served at 6 p.m. to which the congregation is invited.

It is important for members of the congregation to attend the annual meeting because it is at the annual meeting that members can become better acquainted with one another and better informed on synagogue matters.

Chairman of the Board Nathaniel H. Usdan will deliver the Annual Report and Rabbi David H. Lincoln will install into office the newly elected officers of the congregation and the Board of Trustees as well as the officers of the "Arms" of the synagogue: Sisterhood, Men's Club, Parents Association, Women's Evening Group and Couples Club. Cantor David Lefkowitz will conduct the Memorial Service for those members of the congregation who have died during the past year.

It is a truism that a vibrant synagogue community depends upon the interest of all its members in all aspects of synagogue life. Attend the Annual Meeting and if you plan to come for supper at 6 p.m., please call the Synagogue Office, 369-2600, to make your reservation.

Special Shabbat Eve Service Takes Place on Friday, May 12

The Choral Society of Temple Emanuel of New Jersey, conducted by Yaakov Bergman, will join Rabbi David H. Lincoln, Cantor David Lefkowitz and Organist Neil Robinson in presenting a special Shabbat Evening Service, Friday, May 12 at 7:15 p.m. (The congregation is to note that this service is scheduled to begin an hour later than the usual Friday night Service.)

Many congregants will remember Mr. Bergman as the Music Teacher in our Religious School in years past. Mr. Bergman has gone on to a distinguished career as a conductor of the Heritage Chamber Orchestra and other musical groups.

Israeli Law

If life in Israel is not complicated enough, the legal system is somewhat confusing to those of us used to our system of justice.

In its first years of sovereignty the Knesset took over the existing mandatory laws which had been a fusion of British Colonial and Turkish laws. Successive Knessets reduced that influence and there is an ever-growing number of precedents at the disposal of judges.

As far as Jewish law is concerned, each draft law is scrutinized by the Jewish Law Department of the Ministry of Justice and where possible adapted to the standards of halacha. Israeli lawyers study some Jewish law as part of their legal training, but if they wish to appear before a Bet Din (Religious Court) which functions in various cities and towns, they must deepen their knowledge in order to plead before the religious judges (dayanim) who rule according to halacha.

Of course, this brief summary only begins to summarize the difficulties of a fascinating development. It may not be generally known that Jordanian law still pertains in Judea and Samaria, Syrian law in the Golan Heights and Egyptian law in the Gaza district.

I have the utmost confidence that the lawyers in Israel can handle every contingency. Some years ago I wandered into a courtroom in Jerusalem in which a civil matter was under consideration. The witness could only speak German, but an interpreter was present. The judge said, "Everyone here understands German. We do not need a translator." The case continued in German! Only in Israel....

—David H. Lincoln

Help Nurture Our School

It is one of the delights to be present in the synagogue building when the schools are in session. To see children of all ages entering the building, on their way to assure the future of the Jewish people in effect, is a joy to behold.

Our Early Childhood Center is at its capacity this year; our Primary and Elementary School is expanding rapidly with an ever-increasing number of children seeking a Jewish education; our Youth Group which reaches out to unaffiliated Jewish children, is providing enriched Jewish programs for the youth of the neighborhood; our High School continues to attract a group of dedicated, committed young Jewish students.

This success story requires more teachers to teach, more materials to aid in that teaching and, of course, more money to support it. It is a fact that the Park Avenue Synagogue has always prided itself on its support of its school.

Many funds have been established over the years to benefit school activities and programs. When next you think of making a contribution to the synagogue to commemorate a family life cycle event, please consider applying it to one of the many funds which benefit our school, its programs and its teachers.
